2.6.2: Attainment of programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution

LLB- 3 years Degree Course, BA LLB and LLM are professional programs run by the college also various courses are offered under these programs. Theoretical knowledge as well as inculcation of fine lawyering skills is important for overall development of the students. The Program Outcomes and Course Outcomes are designed keeping in mind the overall growth and development of the future lawyers.

Attainment of the these program outcomes and course outcomes is reflected through

- Pass percentage of the students at the University level examination.
- Meritorious performance of the students at University level examination
- Participation of students in Debate Competitions, Youth festivals, Moot court Competitions at State, National and International level.
- Several awards won by the students in various competitions reflect the attainment of the program outcomes.
- Ability of students to draft the petitions, notices, adjournment applications and other legal documents.
- Performance of the students in sports and cultural events at University, State and National level.
- Outstanding performance of the students at CJSJ & JMFC examinations, NET/ SET Examinations
- Fine lawyering skills, soft skills development, personality development, English fluency
