15. Multidisciplinary / interdisciplinary

In recognition of the evolving global landscape and the National Education Policy's emphasis on multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary learning, our college understands the importance of adopting a diverse approach to education. We believe that integrating multiple disciplines will enhance critical thinking skills among our students and open up new employment opportunities. To achieve this, we will implement suitable pedagogical strategies that foster collaboration with other disciplines. Our college intends to collaborate with linguistic departments of other colleges, the forensic department of the medical college, banking and commercial institutions, as well as local self-government institutions. These partnerships will contribute to the holistic development of our law graduates, imbuing them with values, ethics, and a broader perspective for their future roles in society and the employment sector.

16. Academic bank of credits (ABC):

At Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh College of Law, we offer LL.B. 3- and 5-year degree programs. In line with the curriculum provided by the university, we will adjust the structure and duration of these degree programs. Additionally, we recognize the importance of establishing an Academic Bank of Credits (ABC). The ABC will serve as a digital repository, securely storing academic credits earned by students from various recognized Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) and SWAYAM-NPTEL courses, among others. This credit accumulation system will enable the seamless transfer of credits earned by students, ensuring that their degrees reflect the comprehensive educational experiences they have acquired.

17. Skill development:

Our college believes that education should not solely focus on cognitive development but also on character building and nurturing well-rounded individuals equipped with 21st-century skills. As an institution imparting legal education, we are committed to enhancing the skills of our students through various aspects of the curriculum and pedagogy. By adopting engaging teaching and learning processes, we aim to empower our students to excel as legal professionals in courts, various institutions, the judiciary, and renowned national and international NGOs. These acquired skills will enable them to earn a livelihood while advocating for social justice and uplifting marginalized sections of society.

18.Appropriate integration of Indian Knowledge system (teaching in Indian Language, culture, using online course)

India is a nation enriched with diverse cultural and religious philosophies. At Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh College of Law, we recognize the significance of integrating ancient legal principles and traditional knowledge to address contemporary societal issues. While English is predominantly used in higher courts, we have observed the need for local languages in district and local courts. To bridge this gap, we will conduct specialized courses to train our students in local languages, equipping them with effective communication skills and empowering them to excel in their legal profession.

19.Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):

We are dedicated to delivering legal education that adheres to the syllabus prescribed by the Bar Council of India and implemented by the university. While our current curriculum is outcome-based, we are committed to further enhancing its effectiveness. Our goal is to equip our students with the skills and knowledge necessary to become competent lawyers and responsible citizens. By emphasizing outcome based education, we aim to foster a deeper understanding of legal concepts, critical thinking abilities, and practical skills that will enable our students to succeed in their legal careers

20.Distance education/online education:

When it comes to distance education and online education, Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh College of Law recognizes the importance of personal attendance and practical experiences in shaping students into competent lawyers. As a professional college, these aspects hold significant value in our educational approach. However, we also understand the potential of distance education to offer flexibility and broaden access to legal knowledge

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh College of Law follows the curriculum prescribed by Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University for LLB 3 years, LLB 5 years, LLM and Ph.D course work programme. This curriculum comprises of elementary content that should be imparted in course of legal education. Thus, the real task of extracting the maximum from the curriculum and catering the needs of the students lies on the concerned teacher. The Institution takes efforts for effective curriculum delivery for which well-planned documented process is adopted. The college is keen in its planning and ensures at every walk that execution is given due importance. Many settled practices are followed for purpose of execution and planning however, novel and innovative ideas are encouraged. The departmental meetings are held at the beginning of each session of academic year by Head of departments to decide and execute strategies as to the effective delivery of curriculum. The work load is allotted to each teacher and timetable is discussed and prepared for all the programmes well in advance. In the meeting held each teacher is directed to submit the Teaching action Plan of their subject before the commencement of teaching.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity
2.2.1 - The institution assesses the learning levels of the students and organizes special Programmes for advanced learners and slow learners
Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh College of Law places great emphasis on the assessment of students' learning levels after their admission, in order to identify their strengths and weaknesses and provide them with appropriate support to enhance their academic performance so that they can become successful and eminent lawyers, judges, academicians and better citizens. The institution has incorporated and implemented a Learner's Assessment and Support Policy for evaluation of students learning capabilities and for providing them with opportunities/remedies accordingly. The said policy has been very helpful to the institution to bring out the best possible results for the holistic development of the students. The institution has designed a comprehensive system of continuous assessment, which includes formative and summative assessments, class tests, assignments, and project work. Through these efforts the institute is able to categorise the students who are quite slow in learning, i.e., slow Learners and the students who can be said to be advanced learners. To cater to the diverse learning needs of students, the institution has developed special programs for advanced learners and slow learners. So also, as a part of training and induction to newly admitted students, a college level Intra Moot Court Competition and Rookie Moot Court competition is conducted by the institute

2.3.2 - Teachers use ICT-enabled tools including online resources for effective teaching and learning

Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh College of Law recognizes the importance of technology in enhancing the teaching-learning process and improving student learning outcomes. The College has implemented several initiatives to ensure that its faculty members have access to ICT-enabled tools that can support their teaching activities and engage students in the learning process.

To facilitate the use of technology in teaching, it has established a state-of-the-art ICT infrastructure that includes projector-enabled classrooms, computer labs, and high-speed internet connectivity. It also provides its faculty members with access to digital libraries, online learning management systems, and e-books that can help them develop course materials that are interactive, engaging, and up-to-date. The College encourages its faculty members to use ICT-enabled tools to create a more student-centred learning environment that can better meet the needs and interests of our students. For example, the faculty members use power-point presentations, videos of experts posted on online platforms to explain complex concepts of law and other topics and engage students in active learning. The College also uses online quizzes and assessments through online apps and modes such as Testmoz and Google Forms.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution.

Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh College of Law recognizes the significance of evaluating program and course outcomes to ensure the effectiveness of the curriculum and teaching-learning processes. It believes that just mentioning the Programme outcomes and course outcomes to the students will not be suffice unless attainment of its outcomes are evaluated. The college has established a robust mechanism for evaluating the attainment of program outcomes and course outcomes. This evaluation further helps the college to foster its teaching learning methods for more better attainment of the same. The attainment of program outcomes and course outcomes is evaluated using a variety of assessment methods, such as internal assessment, assessment test, and viva-voce. The evaluation process is conducted regularly, as per the academic calendar, to ensure that the students are on track with their learning objectives. The college has a well-structured system for tracking and analysing the assessment data. The analysis of the data provides valuable insights into the effectiveness of the curriculum and teaching-learning processes, which are then used to make necessary improvements.

3.2 - Innovation Ecosystem

3.2.1 - Institution has created an ecosystem for innovations and has initiatives for creation and transfer of knowledge

Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh College of Law has taken several initiatives to create an ecosystem for innovations that fosters research, and development activities among its students, faculty, and staff. The college has also set up a legal aid clinic that provides free legal aid services to underprivileged communities, thus contributing to the larger societal goals of justice and equity. In the said clinic the students volunteer along with the faculty for providing legal aid to the aggrieved persons. In the counselling of the said people, the students and faculty come across various unique issues on which they get an opportunity to have research which thereby helps them in solving the issues innovatively. The college has also organized several initiatives to promote the creation and transfer of legal knowledge. It regularly conducts seminars, workshops, and conferences on various legal topics to facilitate the exchange of ideas and knowledge among the stakeholders. The faculty members are actively engaged in research and development activities, and have undertaken several research projects. The college also encourages our students to undertake research projects. The number of research papers published and presented by college teachers in Books Journals and Conference Proceedings is the greatest evidence of it.

3.4.1 - Extension activities are carried out in the neighborhood community, sensitizing students to social issues, for their holistic development, and impact thereof during the year

The college is run by the Shivaji education Society with Dr Panjabrao Deshmukh as the founder President of the same. Therefore the college has rich heritage of working for social cause and justice and the same is reflected in the extension services offered by the college. The college has established a legal aid clinic for providing legal assistance to underprivileged people who have no or less means to seek legal remedy or advice. The clinic consists of the faculty of the college and the students. The students get an exposure to the prevailing legal issues in the society while they volunteer at the legal aid clinic, which supplements in their holistic development. So also, the aid and remedy provided by the legal aid clinic substantially contributes to the society. Many of the students of the institute are also enrolled at district legal services authority (DLSA) as a para legal volunteer. As para legal volunteers the students are exposed to the opportunity of closely observing the Lok Adalats and actively participate in the same.

4.2 - Library as a Learning Resource

4.2.1 - Library is automated using Integrated Library Management System (ILMS)

The library is an essential component of any educational institution, and Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh College of Law recognizes the importance of providing students and faculty with a well-stocked and efficiently managed library. The institution is proud to report that it has implemented an Integrated Library Management System (ILMS) to automate its library operations. The college has appointed a full time working staff dedicated for the functioning of the Library. The ILMS software that the institution has adopted is user-friendly and has various features that enable it to manage its library efficiently. The institution uses Soul 3.0 as its ILMS software. With the implementation of the ILMS, library cataloging, circulation, and inventory management has become automated, enabling the college to manage its library more efficiently and effectively. The ILMS also allows the library staff to track library materials, manage overdue fines, and generate reports on library usage and inventory. The college library is equipped with more than sufficient number of books totalling approximately to 12730 with added subscription to almost 18 journals viz. All India Reporter, Criminal Law Cases, Labour and Industrial Cases, Supreme Court Cases, Lawyer Update Periodicals, Maharashtra Law Journal and others.

6.3.5 - Institutions Performance Appraisal System for teaching and non- teaching staff

Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh College of Law has implemented an effective Performance Appraisal System for its teaching and non-teaching staff. The institution recognizes that the regular evaluation of the performance of its staff is essential to maintain and improve the quality of education and services provided by the institution. The college has established a well-defined Performance Appraisal System that is based on clear performance metrics and objectives. The system includes a self-assessment process where the staff members are required to assess their own performance against the set objectives and goals. The teaching staff has to provide their Academic Performance Indicator (API) at the end of every academic year to the institution. The said API is verified and validated by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell of the College. The system also includes a feedback mechanism where the staff members receive feedback from the Head of the Department and Principal of the institution. The institution conducts regular performance appraisals for its staff members, including faculty and nonteaching staff, on an annual basis. The performance appraisals are conducted in a fair, transparent, and objective manner, and take into account the performance metrics and objectives set at the beginning of the year.
